

be," Tolly said. "And mother said she had only learned two things—how to swear and how to spit, although I think she already knew how to swear."

Tolly reflected that it "had to be a trial" for such a dedicated Republican to meet the staunchly Democratic first lady.

Maynard spoke of "her enormous influence and commitment to the Borough and around the state."

"She had such dedication to her community and to her church," Maynard said. "She was so dedicated to the (Stonington Free) Library, to the cause of learning and to volunteer work, and she did all that with great enthusiasm."

"I think of her just now standing in front of the (Borough) post office, speaking with someone and with her head thrown back in a laugh. It's really sad to think of her no longer being with us."

"She had a lot of energy, and she generated enthusiasm," First Selectman Peter N. Dibble said. "She cared deeply for the people she befriended, and there certainly were many people in this community who benefited from her friendship."

"For those of us involved in politics, she was a party stalwart who touched the lives of many of us, but she did not limit herself to partisan politics. She helped numerous people in public life regardless of party lines."

Maynard, Simmons, and Tolly Boatwright all mentioned a love of knowledge that pervaded Boatwright's life.

"Mother really cared about people no matter their age," Tolly Boatwright said. "And if a child made the honor roll, she would cut out the (newspaper article about it) and send it to the parents. She championed children and academic achievement, and doing the best they can."

Simmons said his daughter was one of those who received a clipping and a note of encouragement.

Boatwright's love of learning extended throughout her entire life.

"She had an amazing intellectual curiosity that she carried even into her later years," Maynard said. "In her 70s, I would see her still expanding her mind" as they took courses at Connecticut College.

Maynard is a Democrat, but he said "even though she was a vigorous partisan, I had such a regard for her willingness to stay involved. I just had the greatest regard for her."

THE NEED TO SUPPORT PASSENGER RAIL

HON. MICHAEL R. McNULTY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 27, 2002

Mr. McNULTY. Mr. Speaker, while the other countries of the industrialized world continue to support passenger rail services with 'High Speed' and 'Bullet' trains, the current Administration continues to nickel and dime Amtrak.

Last fall, this Administration and this Congress came to the rescue of our airline industry to the tune of $15 billion. But when Amtrak asks for little more than 1 percent of that to cover its short term operating costs, the President hesitates.

This Administration is proposing retroactive repeal of the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT), sending $25 billion in rebate checks to the richest corporations in the world. The rebate check to IBM alone would be $1.4 billion. That one check would keep the trains moving in America for all of next year.

Mr. Speaker, this is a disgrace!

The Administration should immediately release the funds necessary to keep Amtrak in service.

RECOGNIZING THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF DR. MURRAY ROSS TO THE U.S. CONGRESS ON HEALTH POLICY

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 27, 2002

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Dr. Murray Ross for his 14 years of service to the U.S. Congress at both the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission and the Congressional Budget Office.

MedPAC is the advisory panel to Congress that provides guidance on Medicare payment policies. Dr. Ross has served with distinction as MedPAC's founding executive director, providing outstanding policy analysis and exceptional service to Members of Congress and their staff.

Before MedPAC, he served as unit chief for the Health Cost Estimates Unit of the Congressional Budget Office, directing his staff in developing key spending and cost estimates for the Congress.

Prior to becoming the director of the health unit, Dr. Ross served as a principal analyst in CBO's Health and Human Resources Division, providing important analyses of health reform and income security policies.

While I may not have always agreed with the advice and analysis received from MedPAC or CBO during his tenure, I speak for many when I say that we always knew Murray was shooting straight with us and doing his best to see that we were provided accurate information in a timely manner.

It is with pleasure that I join the congressional and health policy communities in commending Murray Ross for his service to the Congress and America, in thanking him for his professionalism, and in wishing him well in his new endeavors.

I also welcome Murray to the San Francisco Bay area and look forward to working with him to improve health care in my home community.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. RUBEN HINOJOSA

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 27, 2002

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I was unavoidably detained in my Congressional District. Had I been present, I would have voted yes on rollcalls 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256 and 257.

ALLEN J. KAYNER: SETTING THE PACE FOR BAY COUNTY

HON. JAMES A. BARCIA

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 27, 2002

Mr. BARCIA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the life and mourning the death of Allen J. Kayner, a teacher and coach for untold high school athletes and students in the Bay City Public Schools in my hometown of Bay City, Michigan. Coach Kayner was a legend in the local running community, having founded both the Bay Area Runners Club and the St. Patrick's Day Road Race. He also taught history and geography at my alma mater, Bay City Central High School, and I considered him a friend and mentor.

Throughout his 30-year tenure with the Bay City Public Schools, Al Kayner was a devoted and intelligent teacher who gave the full measure of his talents to help students in and out of the classroom. His enthusiasm, patience and attention to detail were tremendous assets in teaching geography and history and they were also his greatest gifts as a coach.

In the early 1970s, Al founded the Bay Area Runners Club, serving as the club's first president and then again he offered his services as its president in the early 1990s. Before that, Al coached track and cross country at both Bay City Western and Bay City Central high schools. He also coached long-distance running at Essexville Garber High School for a short time.

Al will perhaps be best remembered as the man behind the St. Patrick's Day Road Race, which he organized and led from the start. On March 17, 1974, Al ran the first race with 65 other runners who began at Veterans Memorial Park and finished at Wenonah Park. The race now begins in Essexville and finishes in downtown Bay City, but otherwise it's the same footrace that Al envisioned 28 years ago and it is still going strong.

When Al died last year of cancer, the loss was certainly felt most by his wife, Judy, their three children, Karen, Kristine and Steven, and the rest of his loving family. However, his passing was most assuredly also felt by the entire community. Al left his mark on all those he met. It is especially fitting to honor him with fireworks on the Fourth of July because Al's life on this earth was certainly a star-spangled event never to be forgotten.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Al Kayner, a coach, teacher and friend to all. I am confident that Al is somewhere right now lacing up his running shoes and preparing for a heavenly marathon with the other angels. Godspeed, Al.

TRIBUTE TO THE LABOR COUNCIL FOR LATIN AMERICAN ADVANCEMENT
